2003–2014

Art Director/Senior Graphic Designer, Ojai Valley School

From concept to completion, this position was the leadership role in creating, producing and overseeing all graphics, layout, and website management for a busy graphics department. Worked collaboratively with departments to deliver creative solutions for the school. Primary responsibilities included initial concept and layout of all advertising and publications, photo editing and organization, and creating and maintaining style settings to maintain visual branding across all platforms. Also worked with outside vendors, assistant designers, and managed multiple projects in a fast-paced, deadline-driven environment.

2000–2002

Senior Designer, James Graca Design

Operating directly under the Creative Director and Art Director, was part of a dynamic team, focusing on design and advertising.

1997–2000

Senior Designer, DataProse, Inc.

Working in an extremely fast paced environment, this position required fast thinking creative and production skills, for multiple clients, on very tight deadlines.
